

PUT ME DOWN IN WINE

Jett Prescott

Running off the train you know, this isn't what you bargained for, staring at a psychedelic sky

Just me and mary jane you see, she cares to keep me company, could you care any less for me

I'm crying to sleep tonight
Just tell me I'll be alright

So, put me down in wine, and I'll drink this desert dry for the lonely ones who dreamed we'd never die

Put me down in wine, here's to yours
and here's to mine, and the sober fools
who dared to question why
We had to try, we had to try
Why...

(ohhh)

I'm killing just to feel the flow, you're looking good from head to toe, trying to attract a jealous eye

I'm begging please don't wait for me, I'm drowning in your symphony and my head's above just enough to sing

I'll bury this town alive
I'm just happy that you were mine

So, put me down in wine, and I'll drink
this desert dry for the lonely ones who
dreamed we'd never die

and here's to mine, and the sober fools
who dared to question why
We had to try, we had to try
Why...

(ohhh)

Just me and mary jane again, my patron saint my guardian, her sympathy will always be my friend

It's the only piece of you that never ends...

So, put me down in wine, and I'll drink
this desert dry for the lonely ones who
dreamed we'd never die

and here's to mine, and the sober fools
who dared to question why...

Yeah! Put me down in wine, and I'll drink this desert dry for the lonely ones who dreamed we'd never die

Put me down in wine, here's to yours
and here's to mine, and the sober fools
who dared to question why

We had to try, we had to try
Why...
